GREENSBORO SHOULD BE FOR CARR.

He is a Next Door Neighbor Who Has Time and Again Done More Even Than Was Required of the Best Neighbor.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

Whatever be the individual preferences of its citizens, ought not Greensboro and Guilford county to give Mr. Carr a big complimentary vote? He is a next-door neighbor, whose genial smile and hand shake are of frequent appearance and experience upon our streets. To Mr. Carr, beyond all others, we are indebted for the Greensboro Female College. At a critical moment in its history he invested, we are told, ten thousand dollars in it, practically a gift, as all knew, at the time. Ask Messrs. Odell about this. He has given more since in scholarships to needy girls at the college.

He gave, we are informed and believe, to the Normal and Industrial College, a State institution in our midst, four thousand dollars in cash. They needed the money, the authorities said, and Carr gave it. A former lady student says that during her three years' course at the Normal, Mr. Carr averaged annually four beneficiary students there. Some of these were not known to himself, but had been reliably recommended as needy and meritorious. Thus his original gift of four thousand dollars has been quadrupled since. God will reward these gifts, and we ought.

Of his liberal investments here in a business way—our home insurance companies of today, our steel works, and in our West End Land Company, etc., we all know; but for this last we could not in all probability have achieved our recent great success as the site of the Central Carolina Fair Association.

Let us give Carr, regardless, as we ought to, a rousing and complimentary and appreciative vote.

Yours truly,
GREENSBORO.

Southern Express Company's "Old Hoss" Sale.

An "Old Hoss" sale was held at the Southern Express Company's Greensboro office today. A great accumulation of matter was sold at auction. Purchasers were given tickets for their packages and were not allowed to look at the contents until the sale was over. It is unnecessary to say that deep disgust was written on the countenance of some of the purchasers when they discovered that they had paid good money for articles absolutely worthless.

A New State Councilor.

The Winston Sentinel says that Mr. C. B. Webb, of Statesville, becomes State Councilor of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics in North Carolina on account of the departure of State Councilor Nissen, of Waukegan, or New Mexico. At the last meeting of the State Council Mr. Webb was elected vice councilor.

Last night the members of Cartland Council No. 99, Jr. O. U. A. M., made a contribution to the Odd Fellows' Orphans Home, at Goldsboro, in appreciation of the kindness of the three-link brethren in extending the Juniors the use of their hall as a meeting place.

THE HISTORY OF GUILFORD.

STORY OF A PATRIOTIC PEOPLE.

The Men of Guilford County Have Ever Lived as Headlights of Intellect and Industry—Beacons in American Civilization—Miss Stockard Endeavoring to Present the Story of Their Work in Its Proper Relations of Cause and Effect.

No county in the State is more varied and rich in its experience than Guilford. It has been from the first a progressive commonwealth. Her men have ever lived as great headlights of intellect and industry in North Carolina. They have been as beacons in American civilization, and Guilford owes it to them and their posterity to present their work in its proper relations of cause and effect. The hearts of North Carolinians thrill at the mention of such men as John A. Gilmer, Judge Dick, Governor Morehead, Dr. Meudenhall and a host of others. The value of history is to show the true march of our American life.

This is to say a "History of Guilford" is being prepared. Labor and much devotion is being expended upon it. Guilford should be thankful for her noble past; our present owes much to those who dared the wilds of a new country, who suffered and worked for the infant State, whose like had never been.

Those persons who are interested in Guilford's history should confer with Miss Sallie Stockard, who is engaged in preparing a "History of Guilford." It is her purpose to make it distinctly representative of Guilford county. It is to stand in the world of books as Guilford stands among the counties of North Carolina—true, bright, progressive, representing the life as it is today and the great past which made it so.

SKETCH OF METHODISM.

Issued in Connection With the Directory of the Conference.

The stewards of West Market Street church have issued "A Sketch of Methodism in Greensboro" in connection with a directory of the Western North Carolina Conference, which will convene in this city on the 21st instant.

The sketch was compiled by Mr. James W. Albright, of Asheville, for many years a member of this church, and is a concise history of the denomination in Greensboro from 1783 to the present time. It is both interesting and instructive.

The front cover page of the little booklet is embellished with a cut of the handsome edifice in which the congregation of West Market Street church now worships.

The directory contains the names of the ministers, delegates, members of boards, etc., who will attend the Conference, with their homes while in the city. A partial list of the assignment of homes is published in today's Telegram. It will be completed Monday.

The Methodists Putting Their Church in Shape for Conference.

The work of laying the tile floor in the vestibule of West Market Street church is about completed, as is the granite work around the doors. This, with the handsome stone steps, adds greatly to the appearance of this handsome church. Crushed granite will be placed on the walks leading from the steps and the sidewalks in front of the building.

When the Annual Conference convenes here on the 21st it will meet in what is probably the handsomest church building in North Carolina.

French Hash.

Two cupsful of milk, one cupful of soup stock, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, two tablespoonfuls butter, one quart meat, two tablespoonfuls of flour, three eggs, one teaspoonful salt, a dash of pepper; melt the butter without browning it; add the flour, stir until it thickens, add the chopped meat, either chicken or lamb, take from the fire, beat the eggs lightly and add last; grease a baking dish, turn it in and bake an hour. People's Home Journal.

Cook macaroni in salted water until tender. Grease a pudding dish and fill with alternate layers of macaroni and oysters, with bits of butter, salt, and a little cream between each layer. Cover with crumbs and bake about three-quarters of an hour. A cream dressing made of milk, flour and butter is sometimes used between each layer. Good Housekeeping.

McKinley 302; Bryan 310.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Nov. 3.—Payne, of the Republican National Committee, predicts 302 electoral votes for McKinley. Executive Chairman Johnson, Democrat, predicts 310 electoral votes for Bryan.

Thirty-Two Men Killed.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Phillipi, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The Berryburg Coal Mine was blown up this morning and thirty-two men killed outright and over one hundred injured.

Over a Hundred Cadets Dismissed.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Culver, Ind., Nov. 3.—Today 105 cadets were dismissed from Culver Academy for going to the depot in a body to see off two comrades who had been dismissed. They made a demonstration to show their disapproval of the dismissal of their two companions.

Roosevelt's New York Celebration.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Nov. 3.—The Republican celebration here today was dampened by the cold drizzling rain. Roosevelt made a speech from the Produce Exchange and then led the marching column up Broadway. Thousands of men filled the ranks.

Mrs. Williams Entertains the Euchre Club.

The Euchre Club was entertained last evening by Mrs. Oscar Williams at her hospitable home in South Greensboro. Sixteen couples were greeted by the gracious hostess, and all enjoyed an evening of pleasure such as the club always is accorded. The elegant refreshments were no small part of the charming entertainment. Mrs. H. L. Fry was awarded the ladies' prize and Mr. E. P. Parker the gentleman's.

Assessing Damages in the Rain.

Sheriff Gilmer had an unpleasant duty to perform today. He had summoned a jury to meet in Jefferson township and assess damages to some property, caused by changing the location of a public road, and although it was raining hard this morning, he drove through the country to meet the appointment.

Nice Quarters for the Juniors.

Cartland Council No. 99, Jr. O. U. A. M., recently organized, has leased the hall over Grissom & Fordham's drug store for a lodge room. The hall is being nicely fitted up and will be elegantly furnished by the Juniors. They will have nice and convenient quarters. At present they are meeting in Odd Fellows Hall.

No Suffering at the Finishing Mills.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

In your issue of the 30th you state that a great deal of sickness exists among the people of the Finishing Mill neighborhood; that some of the families are in a distressing condition; and you go on to suggest that some of the benevolent societies might take the matter up. The reports upon which you base your article certainly could not have originated from members of this community, since none, and the writer has seen several of them, know of any distressed families, nor any who need the aid of charitable societies.

EMPLOYEE.

[We have the amplest evidence, besides the above, that no distress now exists, or has heretofore, at the Finishing Mills. It is the policy of the management of the mills to prevent any want of attention whatever during the sickness of its employees, and we have it voluntarily from the employees themselves that such has never been the case, but on the contrary they deeply appreciate the kind feeling of mutual helpfulness that has always existed between the employees and the management. We make this statement in justice to both. The statement referred to was published by mistake.]

Carr Will Carry Guilford by 800.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

For several years we have made predictions on elections, what the result would be, and we have never failed as to the result. So we will make the following for next Tuesday's election. We predict that Gen. J. S. Carr will carry the county of Guilford by not less than 800 majority and the State by not less than 2,000, and the State by not less than 20,000. Mark these predictions.
A CARR VOTER.

THE CONFERENCE VISITORS.

THOSE WHO WILL ENTERTAIN THEM.

The Methodist Hosts of Western North Carolina Will Gather in Greensboro on the 21st to Attend the Annual Conference—Hospitable Homes Will be Thrown Open and the Visitors Made Welcome. The Stopping Places of the Preachers, Delegates and Others.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the eleventh session of the Western North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which will convene in West Market Street church, this city, on the 21st instant and continue five or six days.

It is estimated that the number of ministers, delegates and others in attendance will be about 400. These will be entertained by the hospitable people of Greensboro, not only the Methodists, but the members of all denominations throwing open their homes to the visitors. The committee in charge has made the following assignment of homes:

A Pleasant Evening at the A. & M. Communicated.

President Dudley, upon his return from Raleigh yesterday morning, where he had been to deliver an address upon "Negro Labor in the South," found the students and teachers unusually active and cheerful in their movements, which seemed to some extent to partake of secrecy and mystery. It developed last evening that the students had intended a surprise for their president in honor of his birthday. Beautiful and useful presents were given in recognition of the students' esteem by Mr. J. R. Quick in behalf of the boys, and by Miss F. E. Gaines in behalf of the girls. The presentation speeches very feelingly referred to President Dudley's work and to the high estimation which the students placed upon his services.

At the A. and M. College.

The Rev. S. A. Peeler, pastor of St. Matthews M. E. church, will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the chapel. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

GUILFORD ELEVEN; A. &amp; M. FIVE

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON IN RALEIGH

Mr. Campbell Catches a Fox Part Red and Part Gray—No Negroes Registering Says Mr. Pearsall—All Districts Will Send Democrats Certain, Except the Eighth and Ninth, and These Almost Sure to—Bryan Will Carry State by 30,000.

Raleigh, Nov. 3.—The negroes are greatly pleased at the success of their State fair here, as they well may be. Over 2,000 were in attendance yesterday, and it and the day before were record breakers.

Mr. Campbell, a business man here, has a notably good pack of hounds. Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock he jumped at fox two miles east of here. That fox made eight tacks each of six miles, between the river and near his starting point, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was captured. He was part red and part gray, was of great size and his "brush" or tail was of wonderfully large size. This particular fox was well known and for years had been chased. Mr. Campbell says the ground went over was close upon fifty miles.

Yesterday afternoon the Guilford College football team defeated that of the Agricultural and Mechanical College here, by a score of 11 to 5.

Secretary Pearsall of the Democratic State Committee says the campaign in this State practically closes today. There will be a few scattering speeches Monday. He expresses himself as well pleased with the result, in fact entirely satisfied with it.

Speaking of the national election in this State Secretary Pearsall says: "Bryan will get not less than 30,000 majority, and it may go and we expect it to go to 40,000." As to the congressional vote he says: "We will elect seven congressmen certain, with a decided probability, almost certainty, of getting two more, in the Eighth and Ninth Districts. The only element of doubt in any districts is in the Eighth and Ninth." Secretary Pearsall further says: "The report that the Republicans would register large numbers of negroes last week turned out to amount to nothing, because all who are entitled to register did so for the August election. Practically no negroes offered to register because they knew they had no right to register."

News from the Alamance cotton mills in which the lockout of unionists is in progress is that the sheriff is now serving notice that unionists must within ten days vacate the mill tenements.

Secretary B. H. Woodell, of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, has gone to King's Mountain to do the work which the district deputy does. The deputy for that district died quite recently. Secretary Woodell says there is a great boom in Odd Fellowship in North Carolina.

J. C. L. Harris sails into Senator Pritchard, charging upon the latter the wreck of the Republican party in this State. Bailey, of North Carolina, the postmaster of this town, says Lodge Harris doesn't like Pritchard because Governor Russell will not let him like him.

Mr. Page says visitors are beginning to arrive at Pinehurst, in greater numbers and earlier than usual. Two hotels, one of them the Holly Inn opens March 15. It is not the purpose to open the great new Carolina hotel until January 1, but the rush of visitors may force an earlier opening of it. About a dozen cottages are already occupied.

The Supreme Court will not meet until next Wednesday. Tuesday is the usual day, but there will be no session, by reason of its being election day. The Seventh District appeals will therefore be called Wednesday.

Yesterday a warrant issued by W. P. Roberts, State Auditor, December 11, 1885, for $7.50, in favor of T. B. Eldridge, was paid to the latter, who is telegraph editor of the Morning Post. All these years the warrant had been among some papers in the office of Secretary of State.

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Next to the Consumer

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been too low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

SIN AND SONG.

BY SHAWEN.

Written for The Telegram.

"Ben Bolt," "Bessie, the Maid o' Dundee"—on how many hearts these songs and others like them have fallen with healing, with balm, with inexpressible benediction. Through all the course of time men have been particularly susceptible to the influence of narrative songs. Each generation likes original melodies peculiar to its own social conditions, its general sentiments. And so they come and go; they have their little day, and, like flowers, loved and beautiful, that fade and die with the season, these songs of sentiment, sadly serious and seriously sad, have their day, their little day, and perish with the hearts that loved them. Above every grave the spirit of song hovers like a star. Some well-remembered tune once gave delight to the poor tenant that slumbers in the tomb—only a lullaby, perhaps, some simple melody rudely arrayed in incongruous words, too faulty, too simple to live, but precious to ears that hear no more, to hearts that can never throbb nor thrill again.

The sublimity of Wagner, the ineffable sweetness of Verdi conform to the higher excellence of the soul. But, if truth be told, there is none of us to whom in the depths of being there is not some unpretentious song far dearer than the rest. We may love it for its memories, or for itself—but we love it, and in the last moments when we must lay aside all that we know of life, and surrender our being utterly, to resolve, loved or unloved, into lifeless dust—in this fearful surrender when the mind gives up resistance and assumes the calm of that vast vestibule which confronts the narrow house of clay, it is immeasurably precious to hear again, for the last time, the song we cherished in days of strength and struggle. As the last notes float faintly from the ear it is easier, much easier, to go, for shades of memories sweep by, leading to the tomb like a happy wedding throng embodying happiness and dispossessing death of every terror.

Let it be a sin-stained woman, whose life, whose honor were the forfeits exacted of love—remote from all of her own flesh and blood, among those who neither know nor care about the heart-aches and the agony, the scarlet enlarged into a frightful alphabet whose every construction spells sin, only sin, and yet some urchin of the street, unmindful of his song, careless of its melody, ignorant of its significance, sings, as he passes, words and air fraught holly in her heart with every sentiment which abandoned, forbidden joy intensifies into sublimity, the sadder, the sweeter, the more beautiful that she may not, must not, dare not, participate in the consolation it may offer. It has the agony of crucifixion in its rude reproach, but also the balm so heavenly to a hurt mind, to a wrecked and ruined heart restored in those last hours to the gentleness, the unavailing tenderness which implores the Everlasting for innocence again. And thus dying, sin leaves her body and her soul to their account, as a frost shrinks from the sun and disappears.

Greensboro, Oct. 30.

Waddell Thinks Simmons Would Do. Wilmington Messenger of Yesterday.

When the audience was about to leave there were vociferous calls for the Hon. A. M. Waddell. Amid applause, Colonel Waddell arose and said: "My friends, I am very much obliged for this compliment, but you must excuse me after such a magnificent speech as you have heard. I have very seldom heard its equal. Mr. Simmons made a great speech and it justifies the reputation he has earned and the confidence which his friends repose in him. His speech proves to my mind that he would make a mighty good senator for North Carolina."

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

Some campaign snorter got on this high horse: "Shall we have Bryan elected? No! A thousand times, no! I'd rather go to sea with a boat of stone, with sails of lead, with oars of iron, with the wrath of God as a gale, and hell for a port." There's not any accounting for taste.

Senator Scott didn't act the fool half so much in saying it as he did in trying to bulldoze the reporter out of putting it down.

Webster's Weekly closes the controversy this week with an air of not having said half what it would like to.

The Telegram surrenders its editorial space today to press of other matters.

LOST CREEK LYRETS.

A Bunch of Bright Brevities from the Columns of That Bustling Journal.

Billy Byers has returned from his trip to Denver and hopes to be able to leave his bed in a day or two.

In the society department of a Denver paper we note that bustles are again coming in fashion. Old papers for sale at this office in bunches of any size.

Old Simon Buckley, who lost one eye from a blast in the Holy Moses mine a few weeks ago, came mighty near losing the other one in the Home hotel last Monday night. A woman, a hatpin and a keyhole figured in the incident.

At the marriage of Hank Cates and Ella Harding on Goose creek the other day the blushing bride passed a subscription paper to raise funds to erect a tombstone over the remains of her late husband. A good round sum was subscribed, and she hopes to now be able to pay due tribute to the memory of her recent loved one.

Cyrus Hand and Mary Somer came over from Methodist Mountain yesterday to be married, and Judge Jenkins tied the knot in the latest approved style. In the spirit of jocularly for which he is noted his honor whispered in the ear of the bride, just after bestowing the judicial kiss, that he had never espiced a Hand-Somer couple.

In the trial of a mining case in our justice's court last Wednesday a young sprig of the law from Denver, with enlarged ideas of the latitude to which attorneys are entitled in court, called Judge Jenkins a "pettifogging liar." A moment later he left the temple of justice with a head enlarged to more comfortably accommodate said ideas.

At the swa-ree given by Mrs. Jack Millett last Thursday evening in honor of her reconciliation with her divorced husband the hostess wore a mustard-colored gown that was pronounced to be the smartest thing in the frock line ever seen in this camp. Jack was not present, having been detained up-town celebrating the event with the boys.

Daisy Black, who ran away with a Denver drummer a few weeks ago, returned home last evening with nothing to show for her escapade but a tear-stained marriage certificate and a black eye. She will go to Cripple Creek next week and file an application for divorce, and expresses the sincere hope that the next fellow that gets the matrimonial drop on her may be a gentleman.

Hank Devlin, of Methodist Mountain, who was married last week to that dashing young widow from Denver, came over yesterday to see if he couldn't have Mrs. Devlin arrested for obtaining a husband under false pretenses. When ye Lyre'man asked him for particulars of the crime he shut up like a startled clam and refused to talk, further than to throw out a vague hint that a woman should never be judged by the shape of the clothes she wears.—Denver Post.

Lively Railroad Station.

In 24 hours nearly 700 trains pass in and out of New Street station, Birmingham, England.—N. Y. Sun.

Hoax—"Bjones is a regular fire-eater, isn't he?" Joax—"Yes; I believe he does patronize a light lunch cafe."

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all cases of food; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good.

"A man never knows what he can write," says the Disappointed Author, "until he becomes successful."

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changed weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25 cents per box. Sold by C. E. Holton.

"Experience may be a good teacher," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "but it is also the scapegoat of many a man's mistakes."

RED HOT FROM THE GUN

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War? It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Wig-wag—"What do you newspaper fellows mean by yellow journalism?" Scribbler—"Well, a yellow journal is one that's printed in black and white, and yet when it's read it makes you feel blue."

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses the One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

Muggins—"Bjones is a most extraordinary fellow. He won a hat on the last Presidential election." Bugbins—"What is remarkable about that?" Muggins—"Why, bless my soul, he got it!"

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you. Howard Gardner.

"Hope," said the new boarder at the end of the table, "is the greatest factor of success." They were discussing abstruse problems. "Oh, I don't know," remarked the man with the red mustache; "I'd rather have two pairs put than a busted flush."

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

MISSISSIPPI JETTIES.

They Cost $50,000,000, and Now Are to Be Turned Over to the Government.

"The Eads jetties in the south pass of the Mississippi delta are now ready to be taken over by the government," said Estell McHenry, of St. Louis, one of the administrators of the Eads estate, to a Washington Post man. "The 20 years that the contractor was required to keep 26 feet of water flowing through the south pass have now expired, and every condition of the contract has been complied with. By the terms of the recent act of congress the government may assume control of the works by paying over to the Eads estate the $500,000 yet remaining of the contract price. This will be done as soon as a purchase price for the plant has been agreed upon and other details cleared up. It is not likely that any obstacles will come in the way of a final settlement, as it is provided that the price to be paid for the plant, which is outside the contract price for building the jetties, is to be fixed by arbitration in case of a failure to agree.

"The Mississippi jetties are among the most gigantic engineering feats of the world, costing in the neighborhood of $50,000,000, and making a 26-foot channel out of a stream where there was formerly but eight feet of water. This has made of New Orleans a port for the largest among ocean-going vessels, where otherwise only the smallest of craft could have crossed the bars.

"The Eads jetties, however, while they are up to the specifications of the contract, will not meet the needs of the future. They are already building vessels that draw 30 feet of water. It is now proposed that the government shall build jetties in the southwest pass that will make of it a channel with water for even larger than 30-foot draught vessels. The southwest pass has now only about eight feet of water, the silt the Mississippi brings down having filled up eight feet of it since the Eads jetties were built, 20 years ago."

FREAK OF DAN CUPID.

Girl Who Can't Speak German Was a Man Who Knows No English.

There are descendants of Germans in Berks county, Pa., who do not understand a word of English, although they have lived in this country all their lives. One of these is Jacob Weinsheimer, who owns what he calls the Castle of Lobenstein, on the eastern slope of Mount Penn, says an eastern exchange. Until recently he lived the life of a hermit. The hillside leading to Lobenstein is so steep that it is impossible to use the ordinary American farming implements drawn by horses. Weinsheimer's principal implement is the kind used in very hilly portions of Germany. He calls it a "karst." It is shaped like a big horseshoe fastened to a wooden handle. With this he digs and stirs up the earth instead of plowing and harrowing it. He also has numerous other small hand implements. With these he raises large quantities of vegetables, wheat, rye, barley, corn, sugar cane, sweet potatoes and grapes. He reaps his grain with a sickle and threshes it with a mallet.

Cupid's dart pierced the heart of the recluse a short time ago. He was working for a farmer on the hills in the neighborhood, when he was introduced to a Miss March, from Ohio. She was some 20 years younger than he, but that made no difference. The love-making was slow, for the woman could not speak German and he was unable to speak English. But the language of love finally made itself understood between them. He proposed, was accepted, and now a happier couple than Mr. and Mrs. Weinsheimer would be hard to find.

Weinsheimer is a great admirer of pets, such as dogs and cats. He is the owner of a black fox terrier which he says he would not part with for $100 in gold. He is a perfect terror to the snakes and has killed more than 2,000 copperheads and blacksnakes during the last five years.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. Howard Gardner.

The Telegram's Tea Table Talk

"Drunk and down." These are ominous words. Is it any wonder that the earnest, consecrated women of the land have formed and do maintain a society to fight drunkenness and the cause of drunkenness? There is not anything on the earth so serious, this side of death, both theologically and actually, as getting drunk. But while this is true in the fact that it is a surrender of a man's real self to an influence which makes him not himself and often leads him to do things that cause a life time's regret, still there is a ludicrous side that often obscures the very seriousness of the crime that a drunken man is committing against himself. Last night a gentleman was coming up town and encountered a man who was doing his best to hold up a gate post but was succeeding poorly. In fact the gate post soon became so obstreperous that he could hold it no longer, so he lay down beside it to guard it. While he was thus engaged, a policeman came along "Drunk and down," muttered that functionary. "Not-hic-a-bit of it, I shurest-in," replied the gate post sentinel. "Why don't you go home?" asked the officer. "Well, cap-hic-I don't-hic-mind-hic-confidin'to you-hic-th' fac' that I-hic-don't know where-hic-my home ish-hic. Fac' ish-hic-we moved t'day-hic-an' I'm blamed-hic-if I aint-hic-fer-hic-fergot where-hic-we moved to-hic."

That forgetfulness of the post supporter reminds one of an incident that is said to have really occurred in North Carolina. A well known minister was so extremely absent-minded that he was known to often forget his own name. He occupied a prominent office in the State organization of one of the religious denominations. On one occasion he got off the train at a small station, when a fit of absent-mindedness came over him, and he forgot not only where he had started, but could not even remember his name. The only thing that he could think of in the way of self-identification was his official position. This he told, and having happened among people of his own denomination who knew him by reputation, he was thus helped out of his dilemma. On learning his name he recollected where he had started and was alright. This story is told by a relative of the forgetful minister.

Some time ago Mr. W. O. Stratford sold a man a certain piece of improved farm machinery. Pretty soon afterward the purchaser came back and begged Mr. Stratford to take the machine back, saying that he had decided not to buy now, as some of his neighbors had bought and he could rent theirs. Mr. Stratford took it back. A day or two ago he got a letter from the man, whose conscience had been smiting him. The writer, it said, had lied about the reason for wanting Mr. Stratford to take the machine back. The real reason was, he said, that he had decided to buy from another man, and made up the story in order to get out of his trade. The letter added that he had become ashamed of his conduct and would soon call on Mr. Stratford and buy some machinery sure enough.

Mr. Hinton, manager of the Greensboro Pressing Club, is about to earn the sobriquet of "Dollar Bill," because he pays out so many bills of that denomination. These bills are now almost or quite as plentiful as silver dollars. The club membership is $1 per month, and Mr. Hinton says that when he sends around to collect, all the members pay in one dollar bills. This is why he has so many. Most everybody has a dollar bill, and the fees being just that much, he gets a collection of them.

A traveling man reports a queer case which he found on his last trip. It was a most unusual way a man had of getting his twin boys to rise early. The man explained to the tourist how he worked it: "I have two suits for them," he said; "one new and expensive; the other very old and ugly and worn. They own these suits in common, and the boy who gets up first in the morning wears the good one as a reward. Both boys are fond of dress, and so this scheme works well. The minute I shout 'Boys, get up!' they spring out of bed and make a rush for the new suit. Sometimes they reach it together, when there will be a hot fight over who's to wear it, and I have to come up and restore order with a hair-brush."

ABBEY'S MEDICAL TALKS

Kidney Disease

The food that is undigested goes to the bowels and kidneys. Exposure to cold, overwork, congestion or inflammation prevent the excretion of this waste. This allows the system to become filled with uric acid poisons. The next step is Bright's disease. A dull heavy pain in the right side, sallow complexion and loss of appetite are some of the symptoms. The skin under the eyes and around the ankles becomes puffy and swells up. ABBEY'S EFFERVESCENT SALT is Nature's own preventive and cure for kidney troubles. It prevents the accumulation of uric acid, or drives it out if it is present. It keeps the Kidneys and Liver in good condition, so they perform their duties without effort or pain. It keeps the intestines supplied with digestive juices. Indigestion in some form is very common and if you suffer from it, Abbey's Salt supplies an efficient, agreeable and effective curative.

Sick people never enjoy life. Be one of the healthy ones and live while you may.

8093—Ladies' Tailor Made Waist.
7843—Ladies' Skirt with Underlying Plaits.
Waist, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 inch bust.
Skirt, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 inch waist

LADIES' OUTDOOR COSTUME, CONSISTING OF LADIES' TAILOR-MADE WAIST, NO. 8093, AND SKIRT, WITH UNDERLYING PLAITS, NO. 7843.

This stylish costume is developed in Russian green Venetian trimmed with velvet, the edge of which has been cut out in small scallops. Machine stitching, that is employed in so many different ways on the new cloth gowns, is effectively used on the toilette.

The waist is made on a glove fitted lining which closes in the center front, the seams and darts being feathered. The backs are fitted perfectly smooth and the trimming applied in V shaped outline. A close adjustment is maintained by using an under-arm gore.

The fronts are double breasted, the right side crossing over and fastening on the left with small velvet buttons from the lower edge of the simulated square yoke. The closing is made invisibly to the shoulder under the trimming which is applied to form the yoke. The waist is slightly bloused over the narrow velvet girdle. The stock is also of velvet.

The correct two-piece sleeves have slight fullness at the shoulders and are trimmed with velvet to effect a double sleeve.

The skirt fits smoothly over the hips, the fullness in the center back being arranged in an underlying plait at each side. These are adjusted and pressed with such precision as to give a very plain appearance. The closing is made invisibly on the left side of front and machine stitching is used to decorate the front seam. The lower edge of the skirt is finished with a scalloped velvet band similar to that used on the waist. It is bound with new century brush binding, which wears well and does not rub the shoes.

This dress may be fashioned in camel's hair, armure, diagonal suit, ladies' cloth, cheviot or poplin, with lace, velvet, ribbon, silk or applique for trimming. The yoke back and front, also upper sleeves, may be made entirely of velvet or silk if preferred.

To make the waist in the medium size will require one and three-fourths yards of forty-four inch material. The pattern, No. 8093, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure. To make the skirt in the medium size will require three and three-fourths yards of forty-four inch material. The pattern, No. 7843, is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32-inch waist measure.

W. C. T. U. DEPARTMENT.

[CONDUCTED BY MRS. L. T. BLAIR.]

[Note—At the request of the local W. C. T. U., The Telegram contributes a part of its space each Saturday to the use of the Union. Mrs. Blair was requested by the Union to conduct the column.]

SOME FIGURES ON THE LIQUOR-TRAFFIC.

Nine-tenths of all the poverty and suffering in the land are due to the drink habit and ninety-five per cent of all the crime originates from the same source.

The liquor bill of this country is over one billion dollars annually—nearly one-fifth of the entire productive industries of the United States. It is twice the bread bill, three times the meat bill and ten times as much as is given for education. It is thirty times as much as is given for all church and benevolent purposes and is four times larger than the value of all the church property in the country.

But figures can convey no idea of the real ruin which is being wrought by the saloon. Every year it sends 100,000 criminals to prison, 200,000 prisoners to the poor-house, 75,000 men and women to drunkards' graves and 200,000 orphans into the street, shelterless, shivering and hungry. Add to all this, desolate homes, the heart-broken women, the children reared in ignorance and vice, to swell the account of pauperism in this generation and criminality in the next, and some faint idea may be found of the relation that rum bears to this country.

IS IT RIGHT?

Is it right to legalize a business that makes men paupers, criminals and lunatics and then tax sober, industrious and virtuous people to support them?

Is it right to improve and beautify our cities with the revenue from that which blights the home, degrades and destroys our citizens physically, mentally and morally?

Is it right for ministers and Sabbath school teachers to condemn drunkenness while they support by their ballot political parties which they know will make drunkard makers according to law?

Is it right that the gambler, the saloon-keeper, the ignorant and vicious and Christ's representatives on earth—Christians, should cast exactly the same ballot for the same men and the same principles?

EFFECTS OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES.

This is what the leading professional men of the world have to say:

Minister of the gospel—John Wesley: "It drives men to hell like sheep."

Post—Shakespeare: "O thou invisible spirit of wine, if there is no other name by which to call thee, let us call thee devil."

Statesman—Gladstone: "It has destroyed more of the human family than war, pestilence and famine."

Lawyers—United States Supreme Court: "By consensus of opinion the open saloon causes more crime, pauperism and misery than any other one thing in the nation."

Physician: "It renders the human system more liable to disease and less able to resist disease when taken."

Railroad: Forty-seven trunk-lines have forbidden their employees to use intoxicating liquors.

No bank or leading business house will employ a man or woman who is known to use intoxicating liquors.

In the light of the above testimony should saloons be licensed to sell such a man-destroying substance?

Will you support at next election any party that pro poses to do it?

The things we do worst are usually the things we do most.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.

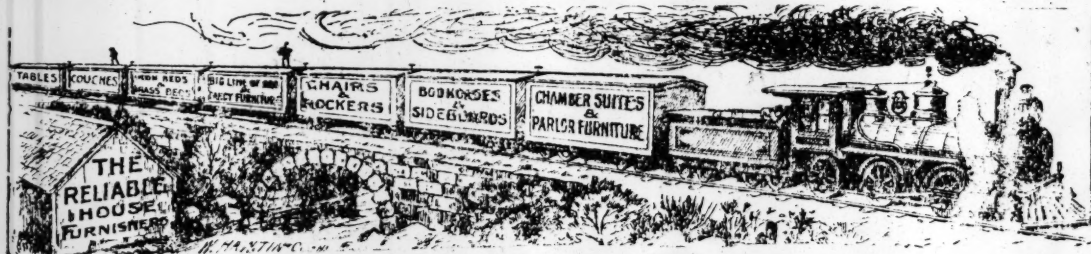

McLEEE'S
Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

Notices of New Advertisements.

The Odell Hardware Company carries a large and fine assortment of shot guns, repeating rifles, etc.

C. O. Forbis talks about his fine parlor furniture, bedroom suits, etc. All these goods are fresh from the best known factories, and are strictly up-to-date.

R. G. Fortune & Co.—Sale of blankets, wrappers, walking skirts, etc. Their ad. is most interesting to lady shoppers.

A rare combination. This is what S. L. Gilmer & Co. say of their big underwear sale Monday. You get seasonable underwear at the right end of the season, at out-of-season prices. This firm is opposed to mixing old and new goods, so they have marked every piece of the Brown stock at half price or less for quick selling.

YES it is very gratifying to hear so many people praising our BEST PATENT FLOUR—Eagle Brand—which is the best possible evidence we could get of its superiority over other flours sold on this market. A trial order will put you in line with the procession of believers in it.
